APPLICATION for a CERTIFICATE under Section 11 (1) of the Finance Act, 1894.

NOTE.—(1) The application should be prepared in duplicate, and should be transmitted to the Controller, Estate Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Somerset House, W.C. 2. The certificate (if it can be issued) will be endorsed on one copy, which will then be returned to the applicant. The other copy will be filed for reference.

Where more than one certificate is required, the property to be included in each certificate should be set out on a separate form. Separate duplicates should not, however, be prepared, but one form, comprising all the property in respect of which separate certificates are required, should be forwarded for filing in the Estate Duty Office.

(2) A certificate under section 11 (1) does not apply to a deceased person's free personal estate, including leasehold property, upon which the Estate Duty does not form a specific charge.

(a) Strike out the words not applicable and state the number or distinctive letter of the Account annexed to the Inland Revenue Affidavit.

(a) The property was accounted for in (the Account "B" annexed to the Inland Revenue Affidavit of the deceased's Estate) (~~an Estate Duty Account dated the~~       , 1       , which has been delivered with reference to the death of the deceased).

(b) The application must be made by the person or persons accounting for the Estate Duty, by the Solicitor or Solicitors acting on his or their behalf, or by some other person authorised in writing by the accounting person or persons.

(b) Signature of Applicant Kerwood & Co. S.
Address Church Road, Redditch.
How concerned Solicitors for the Executor.
Date of application 22nd January 1925.

(c) The description of the property should agree with, though it need not be a full copy of, that contained in the Affidavit or Account delivered to the Estate Duty Office.

(c) The property hereinbefore referred to :—
Three freehold houses Nos. 130, 132, and 134 Lodge Road, Redditch in the County of Warwick.

CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify that the Commissioners of Inland Revenue are satisfied that the full Estate Duty in respect of the property hereinbefore described as passing on the death of the said

Edwin Peant _____

has been paid.
